The above information is voluntary and will be published in our online directory which will be password protected.

Photos: To make it easier to put a face with a name, we want to include photographs of our members in a directory which will be available online. If you have a digital shot that you would like used in the directory, please email it to Sue McDonald at: librarygirl1963@hotmail.com. Otherwise, photos may be taken at most of our general monthly meetings for use in the directory.

I grant the Grand Traverse Humanists permission to use my image in digital photographs for the purpose of a password protected directory. It is my understanding that this is the only reason for the pictures.

General Programs: Usually held the second Monday of the month at 6:00 p.m. at the Traverse Area District Library, 610 Woodmere. Check the website or for any change in location/time. Each program is an opportunity to meet new people, socialize with folks you already know, and enjoy an interesting presentation by a guest speaker, or a round table discussion. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. for socializing.
